A Study of Psalm 19: The Word of God

TEXT: What does the passage say?

Read Psalm 19:1-14

Summarize verses 1-6:

Summarize verses 7-11:

Summarize verse 12-14:

What does the theme of this psalm appear to be? Do you see repeated words or ideas? Are there any instructions given?

TRUTH: What is the truth I need to know?

The heavens are speaking a word about God. What characteristics do they declare about who God is?

What is the truth from the text regarding the characteristics of God's Word and what does it do for us?

List the descriptions of God's Word from verses 7-11.

God's Word is....

List what God's Word accomplishes in us as described in verses 7-13.

God's Word in me...

According to verse 14, what should be my response to God's Word?

©2014, susancady.com

What are the characteristics of God the psalmist declares?

TRANSFORMATION: How will this change my daily life?

God's Word changes my attitude, my inner thoughts, my words and my actions. I need to pay attention to what I'm taking in and what I'm declaring through my words, thoughts and actions.

This week make Psalm 19:14 your meditation and focus. Ask yourself these questions throughout your day:

How is the meditation of your heart?

What are you meditating/musing on?

What's happening in your day/week?

What are your reactions to these happenings? Write them down.

Are your thoughts or your words pleasing in God's sight? If not, what kind of reactions are you having and what kind of words are you speaking?

What is a truth you can remember/rehearse to change your thinking/acting?

Share with us what you've learned. You can join us and comment on the blog at susancady.com.

©2014, susancady.com